ABOUT NVDS

Northern Virginia Dental Society

The Northern Virginia Dental Society (NVDS) was established in 1931 and boasts a membership of nearly 1,400 local dentists, encompassing both general practitioners and specialists, and serving communities in Arlington, Fairfax, Loudoun, Fauquier, Prince William, Stafford, Rappahannock, Culpeper, Madison, Orange, Greene, Spotsylvania, and neighboring cities.

NVDS is the largest component of the Virginia Dental Association (VDA) and larger than 22 state components in the American Dental Association (ADA).

The purpose of the NVDS is to promote the ideals of the profession of dentistry and to foster professional relationships among dentists. The Society also seeks to safeguard the interests and well-being of the public. NVDS member dentists have each made a commitment to uphold the ADA Code of Ethics and the practice standards set forth by all three levels of our tripartite organization.
